23. The Honorary President to move :—

"That the Circle in front of the City Institute be called 'Irwin Circle' in commemoration of His Excellency's Visit to Bangalore."

Resolution.—The President proposed and Mr. C. Hayavadana Rao seconded that the Circle in front of the City Institute be called 'Irwin Circle.' This was carried unanimously.

Resolved further that a parapet wall with gate pillars be constructed with a suitable tablet and that an ornamental cluster of lights be installed in the Centre.

24. Election of members for the Managing Committee to fill up 6 vacancies caused by the resignation of 6 Councillors.

Resolution.—Messrs. 1. Deshamuk Govinda Rao, 2. V. A. Krishnamurthi Mudaliar, 3. P. M. Basappa, 4. B. N. Vijavadeva, 5. S. J. Cox, and 6. M. C. Chicknanjundappa were appointed members of the Managing Committee for the rest of the term of the present Council.

25. Mr. S. N. M. Razvi to move :—

(1) "This Council resolves to widen Beeredevaragudi lane by removing unauthorised appraoch of construction of Singarappa and Thimmamma on Municipal land."

Resolution.—Referred to City Improvement Committee.

(2) "Reference to the application of the citizens of Beeredevaragudi Cross lane to install an electric light."

(3) "To install an electric light in the conservancy lane in Vajapeyam Street."

(4) "To install an electric light in Obiah Street."

(5) "To erect and fit up with a tap for the public in the Cross lane in Muniramanna Street."

Nos. 2 to 5. The Municipal Commissioner be requested to report on these points.

26. Mr. V. A. Krishnamurthi Mudaliar to move :—

(1) "As some of the lights in Malleswaram, specially those in the Sampige Road and in portions of Margosa Road do not throw sufficient light in the streets, consequent on their being situated by the side or between tress, resolved that powerful central over-head lights be introduced in those places."

Withdrawn.

(2) "Resolved that some seats be provided in the Park Ground in Malleswaram and the Nagaswara or the Indian Band be allowed to play there once a week in view of the isolated nature of the extension and consequent inconvenience to its residents, specially women and children to avail themselves of such performance elsewhere."

Resolution.—Resolved that the Commissioner be requested to take action for providing some seats in the Park ground and that the question of playing Nagaswaram be deferred for the present.

(3) (a) "As the Jutka stand in Malleswaram is exposed to sun and rain, and jutkas are in consequence invariably parked under trees in Sampige Road, sometimes blocking it, resolved that a shed be erected both in the interests of the dumb animals and the public."

Resolution.—Resolved that a Jutka stand be constructed during the course of the current year and provided with a water trough.

(b) "Resolved also that a large board containing the schedule of authorised rates, in Kannada and English, be put up at every jutka stand for the convenience of the public."

Resolution.—Withdrawn as the Commissioner said that action has been taken in this matter.

All other propositions, viz., Nos. 24, 25, 26, 28, 29, 30, 32, 33 and 34, on the printed agenda, lapsed, as the Councillors at whose request they were tabled, have ceased to be members of the Council from the 12th instant, on account of their resignations from the Council and as no other member present at the meeting chose to move them.

MAHOMED ABBAS KHAN,
Honorary President.
